it s almost undeniable that god is working miracles of healing in evangelization today for theologians pastors and evangelists some questions arise what is the relationship between physical healing and the message of salvation should the church really expect god to do healings in evangelization today father thelen answers these questions by examining the relationship between the preaching of the gospel and physical healing in the new testament the gospel of jesus christ is not simply a message of fact it is a message of power that is often expressed through the working of deeds that serve as signs of the reality preached salvation as signs of the kingdom healings that accompany the preaching of the gospel play an indispensable role in bringing people to faith throughout the new testament the result of this biblical study is a clarion call for the church to renew its faith in god s desire and power to confirm his word through healing as healing becomes more accepted and frequent in evangelization a catholic biblical and theological approach to healing as it relates to evangelization an approach that can be different from its protestant counterpart is necessary this modest book fits this need in the midst of an ongoing debate about health care what does the bible say about healing here a respected scholar reads biblical texts on health and healing with care and imagination engaging the reader in lively conversations with the text and with questions of contemporary theological and pastoral concern gaiser offers close readings of fifteen key old and new testament passages considering their significance for the church s understanding of healing and its ministry today the book examines such significant matters as god s role in healing the relation between sickness and sin healing and prayer god s healing and medical science and healing under the sign of the cross offering fresh insights for anyone interested in christian views on healing
